Information for Married or Single Ladies

A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS.—The most pure glossy, and finest, snow.white starch, in the world. The cost of this starch is about the same a world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quiek. It preserves the clothes, and gives them a glossy and enamelled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by solling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been dene. Now, ladies and gentlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. Copy the address, and send for the information when you have leisure. Better pay post-formation when you have leisure. Better pay post age both ways, by sending a stamp along with the dime. Address, post paid, MRS. ANNETTA LA SHAW, Profitable and Honorable Employment!

THE Subscriber is desirous of having an agent in each county and town of the Union. A capital of from $5 to $10 only will be required, and anything like an efficient, energetic man, can make from three to five dollars per day; indeed, some of the agents now employed are realizing twice that sum. Every information will be given by addressing, postage paid, LITTELL'S LIVING AGE-1854. A beautiful Engraving in each Number. A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

THE LIVING AGE has been abundantly honored by the approbation of the best judges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854,

Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate. The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respect able Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Brombeld streets, Boston. Price 124 centra number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Living Ags, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

THIS day published, the Fifth Edition, Revised.
One volume 12mo, cloth, 63 cents.
This volume should be in the hands of every cultivator of these delicious fruits, for it embodies, in a compact and available form, the experience of accomplished and practical Horticulturists on subjects which have come directly under their own observation for a long series of years. Of a former edition of "Buchanan on the Grape," we subjoin a few NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Downing in his Herical PRESS.

Mr. Downing, in his Horticulturist, says: "It deals more with facts, with actual experience and observation, and less with speculation, supposition, and belief, than anything on this topic that has yet appeared in the United States. In other words, a man may take it, and plant a vineyard, and raise grapes with species."

Ten Thousand Copies in Ten Days. Uncle Tom Kelipsed by the Lamplighter!

GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE. The following are samples of the opinions of the orps Editorial:

For delicate and forcible delineation of character this work is hardly excelled .- Boston Journal The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fire-sides and in bearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair.—Duily Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, wheever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer.—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

eredit to any writer.—Dealy Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all, and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kind-junifunces. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inclegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Duily Atlas.

Located in the vilinge of McGrawville, in the county of (ortland, New York, was founded in 1849, upon the bread principles of "Equal Rights and Christian Reform," and is open to all persons of both sexes, of good moral character.

It has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students; and we believe we may now safely recommend it, under the supervision and care of President Leonard G. Calkins, whose ability for that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent "Board of Instruction." Free from the unholy influence of larger towns, and usrfrom the unholy influence of larger towns, and pervaded by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begotten by no other set of circumstances.

One aerangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking under the careful training of the President.

The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his arduous and noble work.

The Manual Labor Department of the School is under the supervision of Mr. Luther Wellington, a practical farmer, a kind and benevolent man, on a larm of one hundred and fifty-seven acres.
